Support to publishing of the “Mostarian cookery book” by author Ms. Amela Rebac

“Cultural Center” Mostar, Bosnia and Herzegovina

07.07.2018. 11:00

Date: 07.07.2018.	Venue: “Cultural Center” Mostar, Bosnia and Herzegovina	N° of participants: 200 (33 signed the list of participants; photos are evidence)
Description of the activity implemented: The “Mostar cookery Book – food for the soul and body” by the Mostarian journalist Amela Rebac is not only about the recipes on how to cook, but more about the recipes of connecting people through sharing meals. It is all about our tradition in gastronomy but more in a way of serving, eating, sharing and spending the time together. More than anything else this book is about co-habitation, sharing and unity. Mostar has always been a multi-ethnic city, created by the influence of life and eating habits of people who come to live in Mostar. In Mostar you can feel, smell and taste Orient, Europe and Mediterranean. „Located on the borders of the worlds, equally close to the south, west and east ... when the food is concerned, we are the best example of the "humans' fraternity in universe,, Amela Rebac author of the book. The book was printed and promoted within the cultural – touristic manifestation the programme of the Mostar summer festival 2018. LDA Mostar financially supported the printing costs through the funds of the URGENT project co financed by the European Union.
Outcomes: 200 guests attended the ceremony of the book promotion. This was the unique opportunity to share the project idea, and to support preservation and sharing the culture and tradition of the city of Mostar
