

URGENT: Urban Re-Generation: European Network of Towns

C&D plan: Communicate your activity

Municipality of Aghia Varvara, 06 May 2018

Date: 06 / 05 / 2018	Venue: Athens, Attica, Greece	N° of participants:
Description of the activity implemented: The URGENT Local Action in Greece, with the title «Town against discrimination», intended to capitalise the work produced during six months by 14 volunteer citizens of the area of Aghia Varvara, a long-named refugee destination and new land from people from belonging in different ethnic and cultural groups. The team (coordinated and supported by three organisations (EGTC Amphictyony, the Municipality of Aghia Varvara and the Hellenic Organisation for Local Authorities and Development – EETAA) organised a day full of multicultural activities with the participation of groups and associations highlighting the cultural diversity of the area. The photographic exhibition, the poetic and reading abstract of the activity, the projection of the documentary created for the purposes of the URGENT project and the gastronomy corner blending in the participants through the sense of taste, created the image of the local community with the several origins, languages and other assets the citizens bear.
Outcomes: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> - A common space for intercultural and inter-age open dialogue has been established. - A methodology for generating ideas for better co-existing and ways of implementing them has been designed. - A sustainable model of citizen' groups working and developing together has been put into force. - A vivid liaison between the citizens' groups and the local authorities and their respective partners (EGTC, EETAA) has been identified for future joint activities and for the further provision of essential everyday living and prosperity facilities

Visibility: Photos
